

Practice Quiz #6

Nomen: _____

Datum: _____

Section 1: Grammar

Please decline the following nouns:

Ex. fatum, -i, n. - fate

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	Fatum	fata
Genitive	fati	fatorum
Dative	fato	fatis
Accusative	fatum	fata
Ablative	fato	fatis

Ex. virtus, virtutis, f. - courage

Case	Singular	Plural
Nominative	virtus	virtutes
Genitive	virtutis	virtutum
Dative	virtuti	virtutibus
Accusative	virtutem	virtutes
Ablative	virtute	virtutibus

Section 2: Vocabulary

Please translate the following Latin forms into English:

- pono, ponere: to put, place
- cum: with + ablative
- dico, dicere: to say
- ille, illa, illud: he/she/it, that
- cur: why

Please translate the following English words into Latin:

6. through: per + accusative
7. at once: statim
8. to make, do: facio, facere
9. to respond, answer: respondeo, respondere
10. garden: hortus, -i, m.
11. to proceed: procedo, procedere

Section 3: Translation

Please translate into idiomatic English:

1. Primum dux Romanorum¹ hostes spectat. Quod hostes exercitum² non videre possunt, dux statim oppugnare constituit.

At first, The leader of The Romans watches The enemy. Because The enemy is not able to see The army, The leader decides to attack at once.

2. Milites Romani arma induunt, gladia capiunt, de monte currunt, et hastas in hostes iaciunt.

The Roman soldiers put on their arms, seize Their swords, run down From the mountain, and throw spears into The enemy

¹ Romanorum = "Of the Romans"

² exercitum = "army", accusative case

3. Hostes, ubi multos milites vident, subito timent. Deserunt vexilla et fugiunt.

The enemy, when they see many soldiers, are suddenly afraid.
They abandon their banners and flee.

Vocabulary

armum, -i, n. - arm, (armor, in the plural) constituo, constituere - to decide + infinitive de - down from + ablative desero, deserere - to abandon dux, ducis, m. - leader fugio, fugere - to flee hasta, -ae, f. - spear hostis, hostis, m. - enemy iacio, iacere - to throw

Vocabulary

miles, militis, m. - soldier mons, montis, m. - mountain oppugno, oppugnare - to attack primum - at first Romanus, -i, m. - Roman subito - suddenly timeo, timere - to fear, be afraid vir, viri, m. - man vexillum, -i, n. - banner, flag